

Navigation & Orienteering Training 2026

PURPOSE:

This training is expected to help those who may feel uncomfortable about taking their Unit into new locations.

Want to improve their navigation and route-finding skills.

Want to consider orienteering as an activity for improving Scouts' map and compass skills?

DATE:

Seminar: Saturday 14 November 2026

Field trip: to be announced.

TIME:

8:00 a.m. to about 4:00 p.m.

LOCATION:

Seminar: Camp Trask

COST:

$30.00 by 7 November 2026

The Field trip will have an addition fee payable to the Los Angeles Orienteering Club (LAOC).

REGISTRATION:

Online registration with check, paypal or credit card is available at <http://glaac-hat.org/register>. For help with registration contact Hannibol Sullivan, Community Engagement Coordinator (SR) and HAT Advisor at (213) 413-4400 or email Hannibol.Sullivan@scouting.org.

Students need to email hensley.david@gmail.com to get homework and information about what to bring to class.

EQUIPMENT:

Compass.

MAXIMUM SIZE:

15 Students.

OVERVIEW:

The seminar will begin with discussions of the tools of navigation and strategies for their utilization. There will be demonstrations of various types of maps and compasses. Topics will include route finding, collecting terrain features, the Global Positioning System (GPS), disoriented, avoidance of getting lost, and getting "un-lost". The special problems and techniques associated with route finding on the snow and in desert terrain will be discussed. These activities will be followed by participant-led map-hikes which use the detailed orienteering map for Camp Trask.

A field experience will be held, in association with the Los Angeles Orienteering Club, on a date to be announced. Participants will help officiate in an LAOC Orienteering meet. Additional information about the Los Angeles Orienteering Club will be presented and can also be found on its web site, <http://LosAngelesOrienteering.org>.
